About

Sergio Herman

Sergio started his career in the family-owned restaurant Oud Sluis in Sluis, The Netherlands where he worked for 25 years. Since 2005, he has held three Michelin stars and was listed in the Top 50 of The World's 50 Best Restaurants for eight years. Irrespective of this success, Sergio made the decision to close the doors of Oud Sluis in December 2013, so he could apply himself to new projects. Today, Sergio has four restaurants. Le Prinstine* in Antwerp, Belgium, Pure C, AIRrepublic* and Blueness in Cadzand-Bad, The Netherlands. Besides this, he has taken on the culinary responsibility for the French fries concept Frites Atelier. He also has published several cookbooks of which the latest 'New Italian'.

Inku

by Sergio Herman

It was the Japanese sense of sophistication and imperfect perfection that top chef Sergio Herman was able to infuse into the brand new Inku tableware. It's tableware with clear references to shell shapes, blossoms and the abstract structures of nature. "With Inku tableware, we can not only decorate the plate nicely but complete tables with blossoms in ceramics," says Herman, who will use the tableware in the brand new Le Pristine brasserie in Antwerp. "I don't just view it as our task to inspire people from a culinary perspective, but I also want to create that with table decoration" To make that picture completely perfect, the collection is augmented by fine glassware.

Tableware

"With the Inku tableware, we can not only decorate the plate nicely but complete tables with blossoms in ceramics."

– Sergio Herman

"Inku is the signature tableware in Sergio's latest project - LePristine - where he combines the flavours of the region of Zeeland with Italian culinary flair."
